

The Magnolia Tree – Truckstop Honeymoon © 2005, Mike West and Katie Euliss

Verse 1

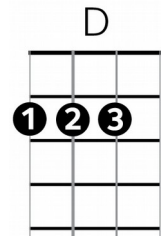

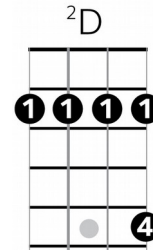

D G D
Coz I love you so, and you're so good to me

A Bm
I'm going to plant a Magnolia Tree.

D G D
It will grow tall, and we will grow old.

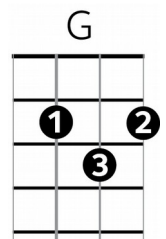

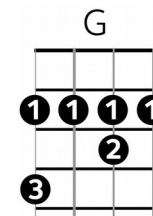

A Bm
Then I will dig us a deep wide hole

G D
by The Magnolia Tree

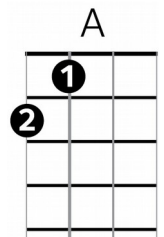

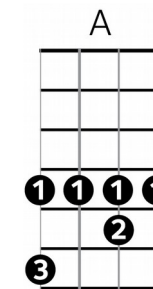

Verse 2

I will go first and then you will join me
There in the shade of the Magnolia Tree
You in a dress, and me in a suit
We'll lie together in the tangled root of The Magnolia Tree

Verse 3

And our flesh it will rot, but our bones will not scatter
The roots of that tree, will bind us together
In life we are married, by preacher and church
In death we are joined, in the rich black earth
by The Magnolia Tree

Verse 4

And when we are gone, our children will come
In the pouring rain and the burning sun
They will find comfort in our memory
Shade and shelter under that tree
The Magnolia Tree
