Intro [C] [G] [Am] [F] [C] [G] [Am] [F]

Verse 1 He [C] left a card, a [G] bar of soap
And a [Am] scrubbing brush next [F] to a note
That said, [C] 'Use these [G] down to your bones' [Am] [F]
And [C] before I knew I had [G] shiny skin
And [Am] it felt easy being [F] clean like him
I thought [C] this one knows [G] better than I [Am] do [F]

Prechorus [Dm] A triangle trying to [F] squeeze through a circle [G] /
[Dm] He tried to cut me so I'd [F] fit /

Chorus And [G] doesn't that sound fa[C]miliar? Doesn't that hit too [G] close to home?
Doesn't that make you [Am] shiver, the way things could've [F] gone?
And doesn't it feel pe[C]culiar when everyone wants a [G] little more?
And so that I do re[Am]member to never go that [F] far
Could you leave me with a [C] scar? (first chorus repeat intro)
[Dm] (second chorus, to instrumental)
(third chorus see end)

Verse 2 So the [C] next one came with a [G] bag of treats
She [Am] smelled like sugar and [F] spoke like the sea
And she [C] told me - don't trust [G] them, trust [Am] me [F]
Then she [C] pulled at my stitches [G] one by one
[Am] Looked at my insides [F] clicking her tongue
And said, [C] "This will all [G] have to come un[Am]done" [F]

Prechorus [Dm] A triangle trying to [F] squeeze through a circle [G] /
[Dm] She tried to blunt me so I'd [F] fit /

Chorus 1 x

Instrumental [F] [C] [G] [Dm] [F] / [G] /

Interlude And I [C] realized, just in time although my [G] old self was hard to find
You can [Am] bathe me in your finest wine but I'll [F] never give you mine
'Cos I'm a [C] little bit tired of fearing that I'll be the [G] bad fruit nobody buys
[Am] Tell me did you think we'd all dream the [F] same?

Chorus 1x

End Could you leave me with a [C] scar? [G] [Am] Could you leave me with a [F] scar?
[C] [G] [Am] Could you leave me with a [F] scar? [C]
